Maryland CASH Academy

What is the Maryland CASH Academy?

An online calendar of free financial education classes, workshops, and events that offers a simple student registration process by phone or internet. Topics include credit and debt management, budgeting, savings, taxes, investing, and more.

Who teaches the financial education classes?

Classes are taught by professionals who represent the public, private and non-profit sectors. Each educator must satisfy qualifications for experience and agree to offer objective and fact-based classes. Additionally, the Maryland CASH Academy connects its educators with ongoing opportunities for professional development.

Who can take classes?

Anyone! These free classes are open to the public.

Do I have to take classes in a specified order?

Not at all! You may attend classes in any order you chose.

Where are classes offered?

All classes are offered in-person at a variety of locations, statewide.

What's next?

The Maryland CASH Academy is a signature program of the Maryland CASH Campaign.

The Maryland CASH (Creating Assets, Savings and Hope) Campaign is a state-wide network of organizations that promote financial stability for working families. The coalition includes Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) partners that provide free tax preparation services, promote access to high-quality financial services, and offer financial education and coaching.
